

NOISE REDUCTION

Noise reduction was important to the community, but conflicted with a desire for open views. In the survey, open views were not more important than noise reduction, and 77% felt that the proposals included valuable noise reductions. Concerns about graffiti still linger, however.

